

Study Guide- English 9- Beger

1. Paraphrase the following from the Glossary of Literary Terms in the back of your orange literature book.

• External conflict:

• Internal conflict:

• Climax:

• Resolution:

• Irony:

• Protagonist:

• Antagonist:

• Plot:

• Exposition:

• Resolution:

• Foreshadowing:

• First person:

• Third person limited:

• Third person omniscient:

• Simile:

• Metaphor:

• Symbol:

• Tone:

• Theme:

• Mood:

• Falling action:

• Allusion:

• Rising action:

• Setting:

• Direct characterization:

• Indirect characterization:

• Flashback:

• Alliteration:

• Onomatopoeia:

• Imagery:

2. Draw and label a plot diagram below:

3. Review the short stories/plays we read in class:

- “The Most Dangerous Game”
- “Sorry, Right Number”

4. Identify the following for each story:

- Plot points-What happens in the story? Complete a plot diagram for each story/play.

- Symbolism-What are the symbols? Who or what do the symbols represent?

- Themes-What is the message the author wants us to learn?

- Setting-Where does each story take place?

- Characters-Who are the characters in the story? How is each of them characterized?

- Other literary terms-Review your notes, quizzes, and papers to familiarize yourself with the literary terms and techniques we have studied this semester.

5. Review your notes, quizzes, tests, and papers on John Steinbeck's novel, Of Mice and Men. Describe the following:

- Author

- Characters

- Setting

- Themes

- Plot points
(main events)

- Symbolism

7. Define the following:

- Simple sentence:

- Compound sentence:

8. Write an example of each type of sentence:

- Simple:

- Compound:

9. What are 3 ways to make a compound sentence?

- ---
- ---
- ---

10. What are 'FANBOYS', and how are they used?

11. What is the correct equation for writing a thesis statement?

12. What is the purpose of a thesis statement?

13. Where does a thesis statement belong in a paper?

Hint- two different places.

14. What is the format for a standard formal essay?

15. What belongs in the introductory paragraph of an essay?

- _____
- _____
- _____

16. What elements must a body paragraph contain?

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

17. What belongs in the conclusion?

Additional Information:

The exam will be multiple choice, fillintheblank, matching, true/false, and one essay question.

A completed study guide will earn you an additional 5 points on your midterm exam grade. For example, if you score a 56/ 70 on the exam and you have completed your study guide and turned it in, you will earn an extra 5 points to apply toward your final exam grade (for a total of 61/70). Study guides will be collected on your exam day. No late study guides will be accepted. They must be turned in at the exam, and they must be complete to receive credit.

Remember to plan your studying, starting with your first and second hour exam review guides first. Take time to rest, eat, and play. Make sure you drink lots of water and make healthy choices in what you eat. Ask for help if you need it. Listen to the advice of your teachers and older students who you know have been successful on their exams. Good luck! :)